

Lisle Free Library – Director’s Report

Reporting: March 2022

Programming:

Book Club: Attendance and interest in Book Club continue to grow. Diligent publicity on Facebook, the website, and the road sign are helping.

Kiddo Crafts: The Library conducted two crafts: Dr. Seuss’s Birthday and St. Patrick’s Day. The total participation was 15 kids and 13 adults.

Iditaread 2022: This is a public reading challenge sponsored by Iditarod Education and Outreach kicked off on March 5. Both children and adults are participating. We currently have 11 “teams” (participants) reading their way from Anchorage to Nome (975 miles/minutes). Two teams have already completed the challenge!

Technology:

The teleconferencing center is in discussion. Installation of the circulation desk computer is still pending.

Policy Development:

The proposed Collection Development Policy was emailed to the Board for review.

Per the Patron Code of Conduct Policy workshop attended in February, proposed amendments to the current policy are still being developed. Attorney review of BCPL’s new policy is still pending.

Cher attended the Meeting Room Policy workshop on March 30th. A proposed Meeting Room Policy will be developed and submitted to the Board for review in the coming months.

Grants:

A grant application was submitted to the Community Fund for South Central New York for $2,500 to fund the upgraded public computer terminal area.
