Reporting: June 2022

Programming:

Summer Reading Program (Children & Families): Our annual SRP kicked off on Saturday, June 25th. Fifteen children registered for the Reading Reward Program. This year’s sponsors are Dominic’s Pizza and Hust Roost.

This year’s theme is “Oceans of Possibilities”. Each week of our nine week program has a dedicated animal theme corresponding to the different levels of the ocean. Each week will have new craft, coloring, puzzle, and writing exercises within each theme. Also we will host weekly live (in-person) storytime and science demonstrations and passive activities such as “Message in the Bottle”, “Beach Combing”, and educational scavenger hunts.

Summer Reading Program (Adults): Our second adult SRP began at the end of June as well. Participants are given a ticket for every book read. Only one ticket per participant is entered into the weekly drawing (held every Saturday), but an unlimited number of tickets may be entered into the grand prize drawing at the end of summer. Sponsors include Piccadilly Lane, Greene’s Ace, Aiello’s Restaurant, and Hust Roost. Other prizes were either donated by patrons or accumulated throughout the year utilizing reward points from Quill.com purchases.

Weeding:

The remainder of the weeded book will be disposed of through the Baker & Taylor “Sustainable Shelf” program. The completed application is still awaiting approval.

Technology:

The teleconferencing center is in discussion. Installation of the circulation desk computer is still pending.

Policy Development:

Revisions for the Patron Code of Conduct Policy and proposed Meeting Room Policy are still under development and will be submitted to the Board for review in the coming months.

Grants:

Purchase order for the upgraded public computer terminal area with respect to the $2,500 grant from the Community Fund for South Central New York awarded to us in April 2022 is still pending.
