

Lisle Free Library – Director’s Report

Reporting: February 2023

2022 Annual Report:

The Annual Report for 2022 was submitted to the Four County Library System for review on Saturday, February 18th. In the coming weeks, the data collected for the annual report will be used to create our Annual Community Report.

Programming:

Book Club: Participation and attendance in Book Club remain steady. Next month’s meeting is Wednesday, March 29th @ 5:30pm and will discuss “The Vanishing Half” by Brit Bennett, a novel about twin sisters, inseparable as children, who ultimately choose to live in two very different worlds, one black and one white.

Kiddo Crafts: We hosted a grab n’ go Valentine’s Day craft. For March, crafts and activities are planned for Dr. Seuss’s Birthday and St. Patrick’s Day.

Iditaread 2023: Our 3rd annual Iditarod-themed reading challenge kicked off on Saturday, March 4th. Both children and adults are welcome to participate and read their way from Anchorage to Nome (975 miles/minutes) between now and March 20th to read as far as they can along the trail. Registration is still on going.
