

Lisle Free Library – Director’s Report

Reporting: June 2024

Programming:

Book Club: We are continuing our “Adventure” Summer Reading Program theme this month. Our second book is “The Lost City of Z” by David Grann. The meeting is Wednesday, July 31st @ 6:00pm.

Summer Reading Program: Staff have been compiling age-appropriate craft activities that family can do weekly. I am still working with community sponsors on prizes for both the adult and children’s reader reward programs. Also, given the additional funding we have received, I have started talking to Village officials about hosting a couple of musical performances at the Marie Lynch Park.

Weeding:

Weeding in June included the adult fiction (stacks) and adult nonfiction. Staff have also been cleaning out forgotten spaces like the loft.

Bullet Aid from Senator Lea Webb:

We are the fortunate recipients of $3,000 of State Bullet Aid generously secured by our State Senator, Lea Webb! Funding is designated for general programming.

Donation from Whitney Point Rotary Club:

We also received a $1,000 donation from the Whitney Point Rotary Club! Funding was not stipulated in any particular use.
