DIRECTOR'S CORNER

I am collecting recipes for a Richfield Springs Community Cookbook! Please send any holiday and/or everyday recipes to me via email at rs.mindy@4cls.org or drop them off to us at the library. Once enough recipes have been collected I plan to put them together into an actual book and sell them at the library.

Also include interesting info such as why this recipe is a favorite for you. Add any story about how this recipe brings back fond family memories or causes silly laughter at the dinner table.

Choosing the recipes to be submitted and telling the stories sounds like a great family project! Perhaps it can be integrated into childrens lessons at home.

Personal family stories will add a little extra spice to our community cookbook!!

Buy a canvas bag for $2.50 right here at the library!

These gorgeous inexpensive bags will make great gift bags over the holidays for family and friends.
