DIRECTOR'S CORNER

On Halloween we are holding a pumpkin carving or painting contest. If you would like to participate, please bring your carved or painted pumpkin to the library on Halloween Morning, Saturday, October 31st by 9:30 am to be judged. All ages are welcome to participate, there will be three categories for each age group, the first prize for each category will be a basket of fun prizes, second and third runner's up will also receive a prize. Each category will be funniest, scariest, and most creative. We will be coordinating with the Garden Club for the display of the pumpkins outside on the lawn. Have fun and get creative!

Also on Halloween, we will be hosting a Halloween costume contest from 11 am to 12 pm. All ages are welcome again, and prizes will be available.

BOOK CLUB NEWS

The book we are reading in September is The Lilac Girls by Martha Hall Kelly and we will discuss it at our next meeting scheduled for Tuesday, October 6 at 6:00PM in the Memorial Room at the library. Copies are reserved at the Circulation Desk. A few large print books are generally available. Please join us! New members are always welcome. ✨

October book to be chosen at October 6th meeting ...

LET'S PLAY BOOK BINGO!! Has been extended!

You can download the age-appropriate BINGO sheet from the website, or pick up a copy at the library, if you don't receive it via email with the newsletter. Those patrons who fill lines on the BINGO sheet or who fill a whole page will win a Brand-New FREE BOOK!!

Please let me know if you are going to participate so I can get enough prizes! This game is for all ages. Let's have some fun with READING! We have extended the game for two more weeks to give patrons more time to fill in their cards. Participants must return their cards by October 16th to be eligible for a free book.
