DIRECTOR'S CORNER

Happy New Year everyone!

A new year brings new things to the library. We will be altering the Art Class program just a little. From now on, the original Art Class which is normally held the second to last Tuesday of the month will be for Teens and Adults only.

A new Art Program for children will take place each month on the second Friday of the month, starting on January 14th, at 3:30 pm.

This month, Creative Writing group will take place on January 25, at 4 pm this month only, we will be back to a normal schedule next month. Adult Art Class will also take place on January 25th at 5 pm.

Starting on January 28th, join us for Crochet Group at 4 pm, let us gather and share skills in this craft. If you have never crocheted, but would like to join us, I will help beginners learn the craft. Please bring your own yarn; crochet hooks will be available for use at the library and for checking out. If this date and time does not work for everyone, suggestions are welcome!

Stop by the library on January 28th for a Winter Book Sale, we have lots of books available for sale in several genres and many children's books available as well. This event will go on from 11 am - 5 pm in the library Memorial Room.

Wishing you all a wonderful New Year!
