Happy New Year!!!

2023 Wow, we have all been through a lot these past three years and so many changes have occurred at the library. I am so grateful to be your librarian and welcomed as part of this community. I can't wait to work with you all this year and bring you exciting and fun programs throughout the year. If you haven't been in the library for a while, stop by and check out all of the fun things we do and have the tools and equipment to do.

Don't forget the virtual story time in collaboration with the Richfield Springs Community Center. Every Friday they upload a new story video on Facebook, starring our very own Jackie Hinckley, Library board trustee and Head Start Teacher. We also offer a take home craft kit in collaboration with the community center which can be picked up here at the library, read through the newsletter to check out the latest craft kit available!

We also hold an in-person story time on Friday mornings 11 am at the library with a craft and/or playtime after a story.

On the first and third Tuesdays of the month we have Kids art group at 3 pm, and Teen and Adult Art Group at 6 pm.

If there are programs or events that you are interested in taking part in or seeing at the library, please let me know. Send me an email or give me a call and we can chat about it. We also have a survey here at the library so you can let us know how we are doing.

There will not be an Artist of the month this month, we will pick up again in February. If you or someone you know is interested in displaying your artwork at the library, please let me know!

Wishing you all a wonderful and magical New Year!

"I hope that in this year to come you make mistakes.

Because if you are making mistakes, then you are making new things, trying new things, learning, living, pushing yourself, changing yourself, changing your world. You're doing things you've never done before, and more importantly, you're doing something.

So that's my wish for you, and all of us, and my wish for myself. Make new mistakes. Make glorious, amazing mistakes. Make mistakes nobody's ever made before. Don't freeze, don't stop, don't worry that it isn't good enough, or it isn't perfect, whatever it is: art, or love, or work or family or life.

Whatever it is you're scared of doing. Do it.

Make your mistakes, next year and forever."

-Neil Gaiman

Each new year, we have before us a brand new book containing 365 blank pages.

Let us fill them with all the forgotten things from last year-the words we forgot to say, the love we forgot to show, and the charity we forgot to offer.
