Happy New Year!!! 2024, where did 2023 go? We will be ringing in the new year with music at the library! Join us on January 2nd, at 6 pm as we welcome Craig Hawkins, who sings, plays guitar and fiddle, his music falls into the country, pop and rock genres. This performance is family friendly and free to the public.

There will be no Yoga and Tai-Chi this month, Wanda will return in February, stay tuned for more information.

S.A.S. will be joining us again this month for a Mystery Box Night at the library! Stay tuned for the date and time.

Due to the musical performance scheduled for the 2nd, there will be no Teen and Adult Art Collaborative that night, we will be holding this group session on January 16th at 6 pm only. Join us for a peaceful, quiet night to work on any art project you would like, we have several different art tools and supplies for use at the library.

If there is something you would like us to work on getting for the art programs, please let me know. Soon we will have a Cricut to use at the library for many different projects; with many thanks to the S.A.S. group from Richfield Springs Central School. Check in with us for the use and let us know what you would be interested in working on!

Kid's Art Classes will be held on January 2nd, at 3:30 pm and
January 16th at 3:30 pm.

We do not have an artist of the month this month, if you are interested or know someone who would like to display their art, or things they make at the library, please let me know.

“...January, in ermine cloak,
With crystal spangles dight,
He gave the queen an Ivy crown,
And her fair shoulders white
He happ'd with tender ferny Moss
From many a cosy nook,
Or from the rounded boulders warm
Beside the frozen brook.”

~James Rigg, "The Progress of Queen
Flora, Adorned by a Hundred Wild
Flowers," *Wild Flower Lyrics and Other
Poems*, 1897
