

SIDNEY MEMORIAL PUBLIC LIBRARY

Library Displays, Exhibits, and Bulletin Boards

The Sidney Memorial Public Library and its branch libraries provide space to the community for displays, exhibits, and bulletin boards to further the library's intent to bring people and information together. A policy governing library displays, exhibits, and bulletin boards is hereby established.

Community bulletin boards and exhibit spaces shall be available to all persons and groups, for any purpose consistent with the laws of New York State, the ordinances of the Village of Sidney, and the library's policy and procedure manual.

The Sidney Memorial Public Library makes its display areas and bulletin boards available to the public, but neither approves nor disapproves of any viewpoint expressed by the users of the display areas or bulletin boards. The library does not endorse any goods or services, makes no representation as to the accuracy of information, and assumes no liability for the quality or safety of any goods or services which may be the subject of postings or displays.

Library staff may post posters or flyers announcing public events, seminars, or courses in Sidney, or the surrounding area. Priority will be given to Sidney events if space does not allow for all postings received by the library. The following categories of items shall not be posted or displayed:

- Advertisements of personal services or products of commercial concerns
- Religious tracts
- Posters of unreasonable size (>8 ½ x 14 inches)
- Petitions
- Campaign literature
- Boxes or receptacles which solicit donations

In addition:

- a. The library reserves the right to refuse to post, and the right to remove announcements, posters, displays, or exhibits which, in its judgment, do not meet the above criteria.
- b. The library reserves the right to establish certain bulletin boards and display areas for certain purposes.
- c. Postings shall be dated. The library reserves the right to establish reasonable time limits of no less than one week and no more than thirty days for any announcement, poster, or display.
- d. The Display Agreement & Inventory Form must be completed and approved by the library director before items are displayed or exhibited (except for bulletin board items).
