Dear Friends of the Library,

As we near the end of 2015, we find this to be a good time to reflect on the life of the library. We are pleased with the many positive events that have occurred in 2015.

*This fall the library welcomed a new director, Susan Frisbee, as well as a new clerk/children's librarian, Justine Bishop. Please consider coming to any one of the exciting programs they are offering.

*Annie Sulger has retired from the clerk position but is working two days a week in the history and genealogy room. You may stop in with your questions or do research there by visiting on Fridays and Saturdays or by appointment.

* The Little Libraries continue to be popular. In the first six months of this year we filled them with more than 1000 books.

* The Judie Reina Moore Fund and Music on the Delaware co-sponsored six musical workshops. Visiting artists worked with children and adults teaching musical techniques while sharing their stories and songs.

* Most recent events include an author talk by Everett DeMorier, a Walton native and WCS graduate. A copy of his book Thirty Three Cecil's was donated to the library for all to read. On December 5th, author Carolanne McGrath will come to speak about writing and to introduce her new novel, Come.

*Check our website or Facebook page to learn of exciting upcoming events such as "Dessert with Jane," a group focus on the works of Jane Austen.

We would like to thank you for your continued support. It is this community's generosity and devotion that makes it possible for the library to remain a vital force in Walton and the surrounding area. We are proud of the library and all it offers to the people of Walton.

Sincerely,

Robbie-Jean Rice
