March 2017 Newsletter

March is “Fines for Food” Month

During the month of March bring non-perishable food items to the library to be donated to the local Food Pantry. We will take .50¢ off your fine for each item.

New Collection of Audio Books are Here

We have a new set of audio book just in. Titles from Stuart Woods, Veronica Roth, Louis L'Amour, Janet Evanovich and many more. Come in and check out all the titles. This circulating set will be available for 3 months - then all new ones arrive.

Worcester Seed Library & Gardening CLUB

The Worcester Seed Library is offering free seed packets (donated by the Cornell Cooperative). We also encourage patrons to bring in seeds saved from last year’s gardens to share. Envelopes are available for donated seeds.

There is now a page on our website dedicated to this program - check for notices and events. If you want to get on our email list write to: worcesterseedlibrary@gmail.com

Next Meeting: Tuesday, March 14th at 6 pm

Gardening and Seed Saving will be discussed with Master Gardeners and not-so-master gardeners also. All are welcome- no experience necessary.

Tax Forms: The Library has a selection of tax forms, state and federal, and instruction books

Library Used Book Store Opens April 1st 10 am - 2 pm

Book donations will start then. Sorry, encyclopedias, condensed books, and textbooks are not accepted. All proceeds support the Worcester Free Library.

152 Main Street (Norton’s Hardware) lower level

We need volunteers for Saturdays.

One Saturday a month would help - or whatever your availability. Please email fotwfl@gmail.com if you are interested.
