All you need is your library card and your device.

Please sign up at the Library.

A New Look for the Children's Section

After attending an "Early Learning Spaces" workshop given by the 4-County Library System, Director Mindy Baker has been adjusting the children's space - more room for activities and better display of related books. We can't wait until we move into the new space where the children's room will be much larger- but until then come on in with your toddlers and explore.
