Marching towards spring! Hope everyone is staying healthy and warm!

We are in the process of taking suggestions for book club books, and would like to reinstate the book club.

Stop in and let us know what your reading pleasure would be for the new group, and let us know what days and times will work for you!

Join us on Tuesday, March 18th, 5 pm to 6:30 pm, in the Memorial Room, as we welcome Lucia and Levi from The Little Zippers. A Wonderful variety duo, Levi plays guitar and tenor sax, and Lucia plays keyboards and harmonica, they both sing!

There will be no Chair Yoga or Tai Chi this month, please stay tuned for the return of this program.

Don't forget Stories Come Alive on Fridays at noon. This program is open to all families with children age birth to 3rd grade and is in collaboration with the Richfield Springs Community Center, and the Richfield Springs Community Literacy Partnership. Recordings of the story times can be found on the Richfield Springs Community Center's YouTube page.

There will be no children's art classes this month, and no Teen and Adult Art Collective.

We will be at the library this Saturday, March 1st to play Magic the Gathering at 5 pm.

Join us for Magic the Gathering, “a collectible trading card game of fun-filled, strategic games to play with friends old and new.” (<https://magic.wizards.com/en/intro>) Call ahead to see when and if we will be at the library to play.

Featured Artist

Lucia Byrd

Lucia is a native New Yorker. Her art on display at the library consists of drawings which she manipulates on the computer, adding more color and definition to the piece.

She has appeared in motion pictures, including Fatal Beauty, with Whoopie Goldberg, and is a musician as well. Lucia's instruments of choice are keyboards and harmonica as well as her voice.

You'll get the chance to meet Lucia at the library this month on March 18th, as she and her partner, Levi entertain us with their wonderful musical talents! If you are interested in her artwork, her contact info is available at the library as well.
